"Therefore, I urge you, brothers and sisters, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God—this is your true and proper worship. Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will." PRAYERLINE @ 6 AM	NOVEMBER 2 ND , 9 TH , 16 TH , 23 RD 30 TH

We are grateful for the promises and truths for the people of God found in the Book of Isaiah.

We pray for transformation in the church through God's unchanging truth found in book Isaiah. We pray that the church would be the place where weary people can go to find truth, acceptance, equality, freedom, safety, forgiveness, justice and hope.

We pray for transformation of Biblical Freedom in systems. We pray that people would be release from illegitimate bondage and have the opportunity to live out the promise and truths found in Isaiah.

We pray that the themes in the Book of Isaiah (salvation, judgment, holiness, punishment, comfort, hope and salvation through the coming Messiah) would help us be grateful, and pray about God's faithfulness to his people.
